Word Choice:

Tighten Wordy Sentences

Bluefield College COWL, 2005
What is word choice?

- Word choice is choosing words that communicate clearly.
- Moo is not clear until it is backed up with the next sentence.

Moo! I am hungry for some grass.

Tighten wordy sentences.

- Eliminate redundancies or expressing the same idea repeatedly.

Matt --very quickly-- rushed to his eight o’clock class.

“Very quickly” restates the same meaning as “rush,” so “very quickly” is not needed in the sentence.
Tighten wordy sentences continued..

- Shorten or cut out empty or inflated phrases.

The student sitting in the corner is the student that needs tutoring in math.

Better word choice: The student sitting in the corner needs tutoring in math.
Tighten wordy sentences continued..

- Avoid unnecessary repetition of words.

The last classroom down the hallway is the cleanest classroom.

Better word choice: The last classroom down the hallway is the cleanest.
Tighten wordy sentences continued..

- Simplify the structure and look for opportunities to strengthen the verb.

  - Colorless verbs is, are, was, and were frequently generate excess words.

  - Beginning sentences with it, there is, and there are can also generate excess words.
Strengthening your sentences.

- A basketball game is so thrilling when a player dunks the basketball.
  Better choice: A dunk during a basketball game thrills me.

- There was a player that was injured in the last game.
  Better choice: A player was injured in the last game.
It’s your turn.
Correct the following sentences.

As a matter of fact, I like the red dress.
In fact, I like the red dress.

The bus driver is responsible for transporting the students to and from school.
The bus driver transports the students to and from school.

There was a crowd gathered outside the courthouse.
A crowd gathered outside the courthouse.
Now, you have wonderful word choice!
